

Communities make the difference

“I fight for better HIV and sexual and reproductive health services for women living with HIV.”

Baby Rivona Nasution, 52, cofounder of Indonesian Positive Women Network

World Health Organization

Communities make the difference

“I help fellow women living with HIV access microloans and stay strong.”

Priscilla Ingbian Simon, 39, leader of COHSEI, a  community organization in Nigeria

World Health Organization

Communities make the difference

“I work to empower women in sex work,
so that we can
control HIV,
rather than HIV
controlling us.”

Phelister Abdalla, 33, sex work and HIV activist, Kenya

World Health Organization

Communities make the difference

“I advocate to ensure that the voice of young people is reflected in HIV and health policies.”

Consolata Achieng Opiyo, 28, youth and HIV advocate, Kenya

World Health Organization

Communities make the difference

“I advocate for meaningful engagement
with key affected populations, including trans and gender diverse people, in HIV and health responses.”

Erika Castellanos, trans activist from Belize

World Health Organization

