
WHO Global Dengue Outbreaks Response

EPI-WIN June 24

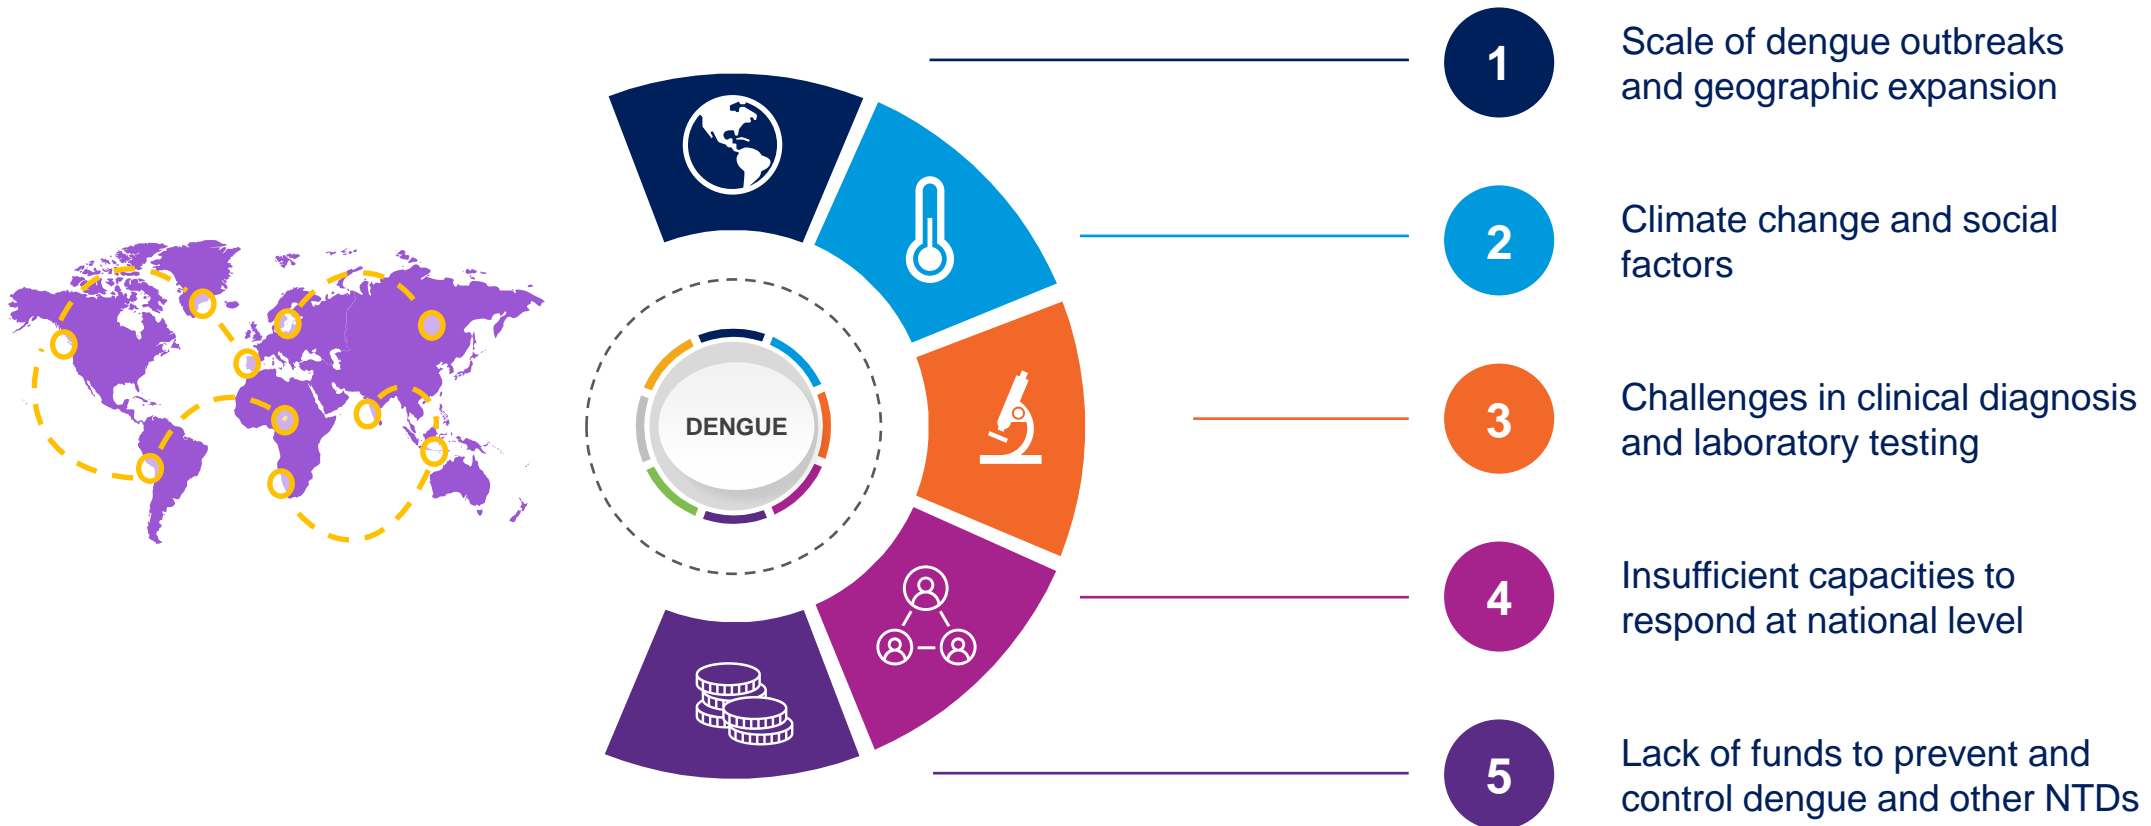

Dr Awa NDIR

HQ Dengue IMST

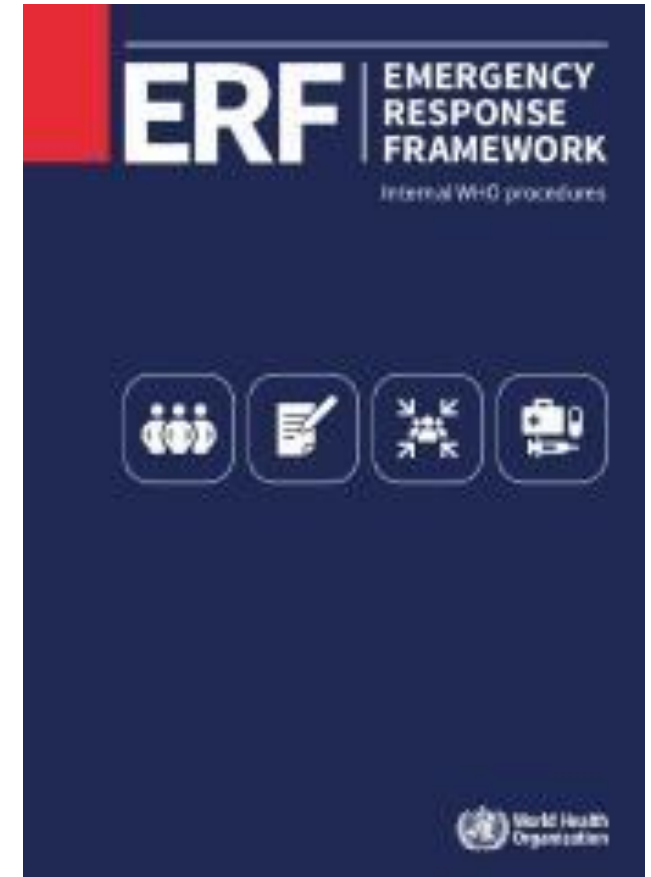

World Health
Organization

Climate-sensitive disease outbreaks, the new health crisis

A Grade 3 global emergency

- Joint Incident Management System Team (IMST) established between WHE and NTDs aimed to:
 - Coordinate global response and collaboration
 - Reinforce regional and national response to dengue outbreaks

WHO' response to dengue outbreaks- priority areas

Reinforce global and regional surveillance system of dengue and other arboviruses.

Provide technical support and guidance:

- Clinical management, diagnostics
- Laboratory testing
- RCCE
-

Increase donors' interest and foster resource mobilization to fund the SPRP for dengue and other arboviruses

Improve vector control management (surveillance, PoE, travel, WASH) and national capacities to prevent and respond to dengue