

CHOLERA TREATMENT STRATEGIES

EPI WIN - 2ND MAY 2024

Kate Alberti, WHO Cholera
Programme / GTFCC Secretariat
Gift Dombola, Community Health
Specialist, Malawi

Summary

Global review of cholera deaths

What is cholera?

Case management strategies – a network of care

Oral Rehydration Points

What is an ORP

Staff

Key elements to set up a network of ORPs

Lessons learned

What is cholera ?

Caused by ingestion of bacterium V. cholerae

Causes acute diarrhoea and vomiting

80% of those infected will be asymptomatic

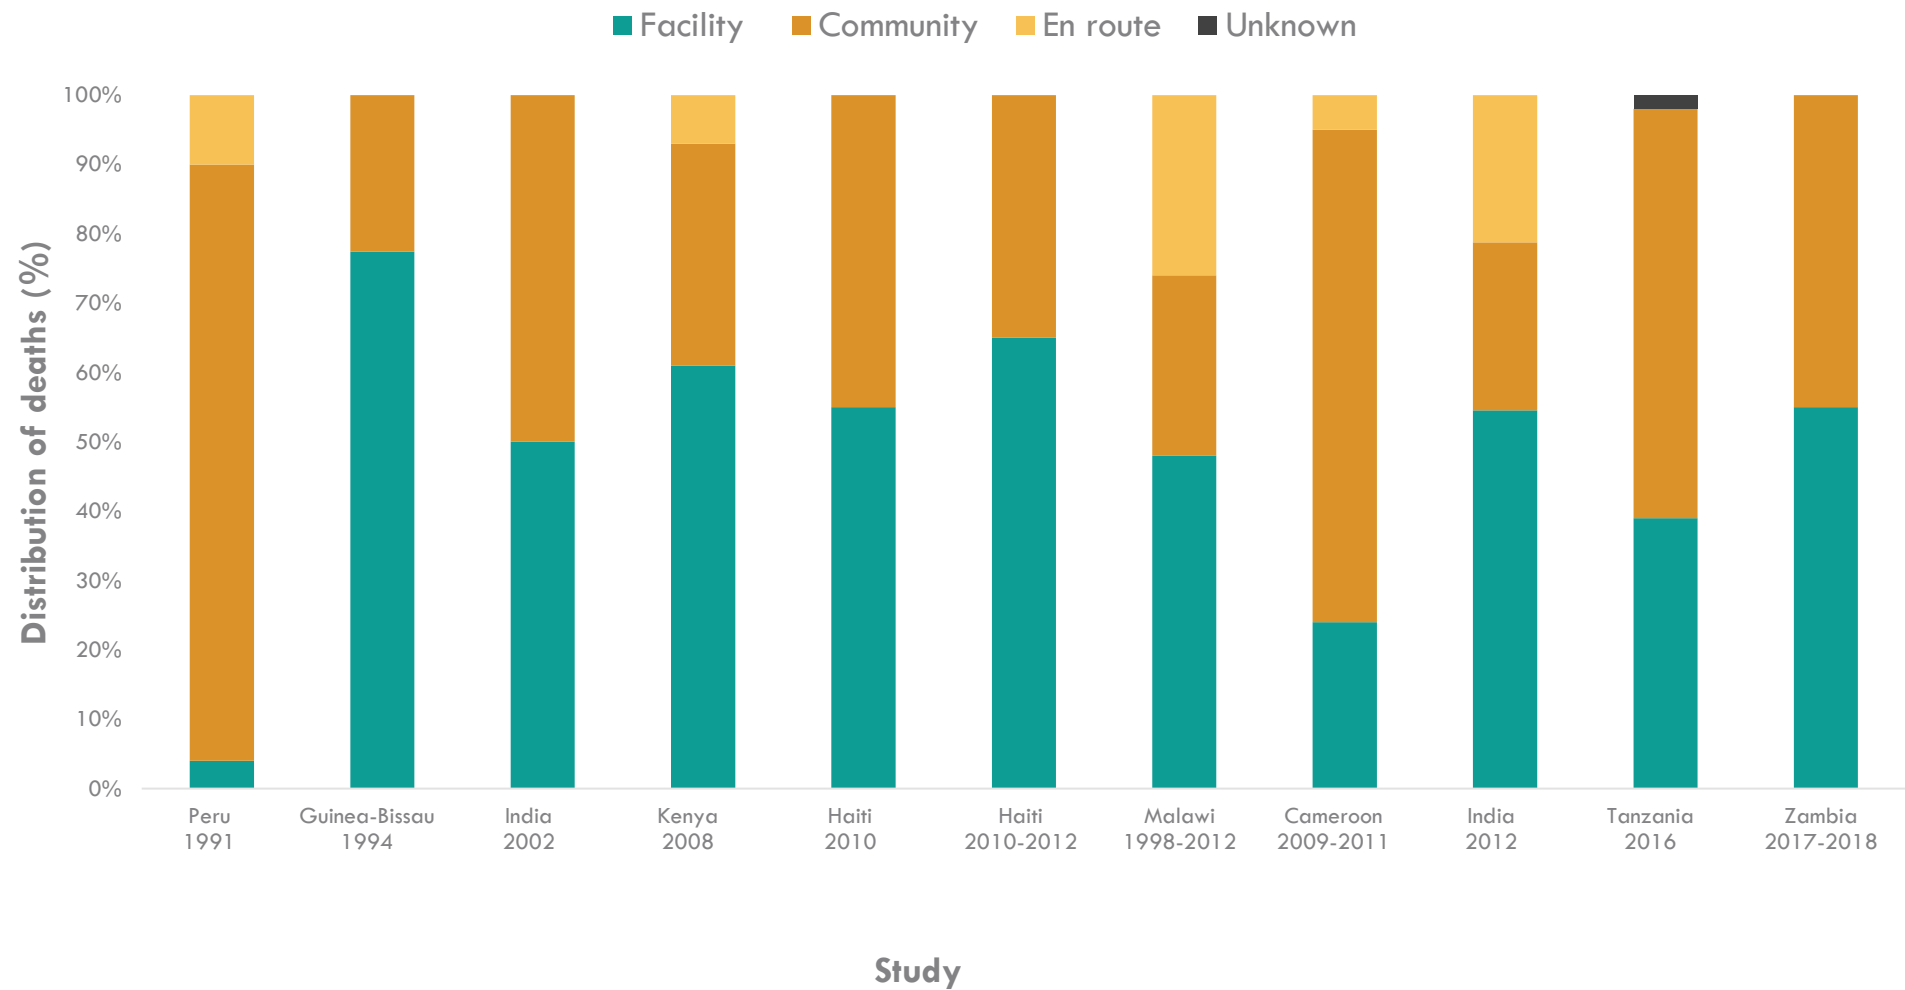

80% of symptomatic individuals will have no or some signs of dehydration and can be treated with oral rehydration solution

20% of symptomatic individuals will develop severe dehydration and require intravenous rehydration

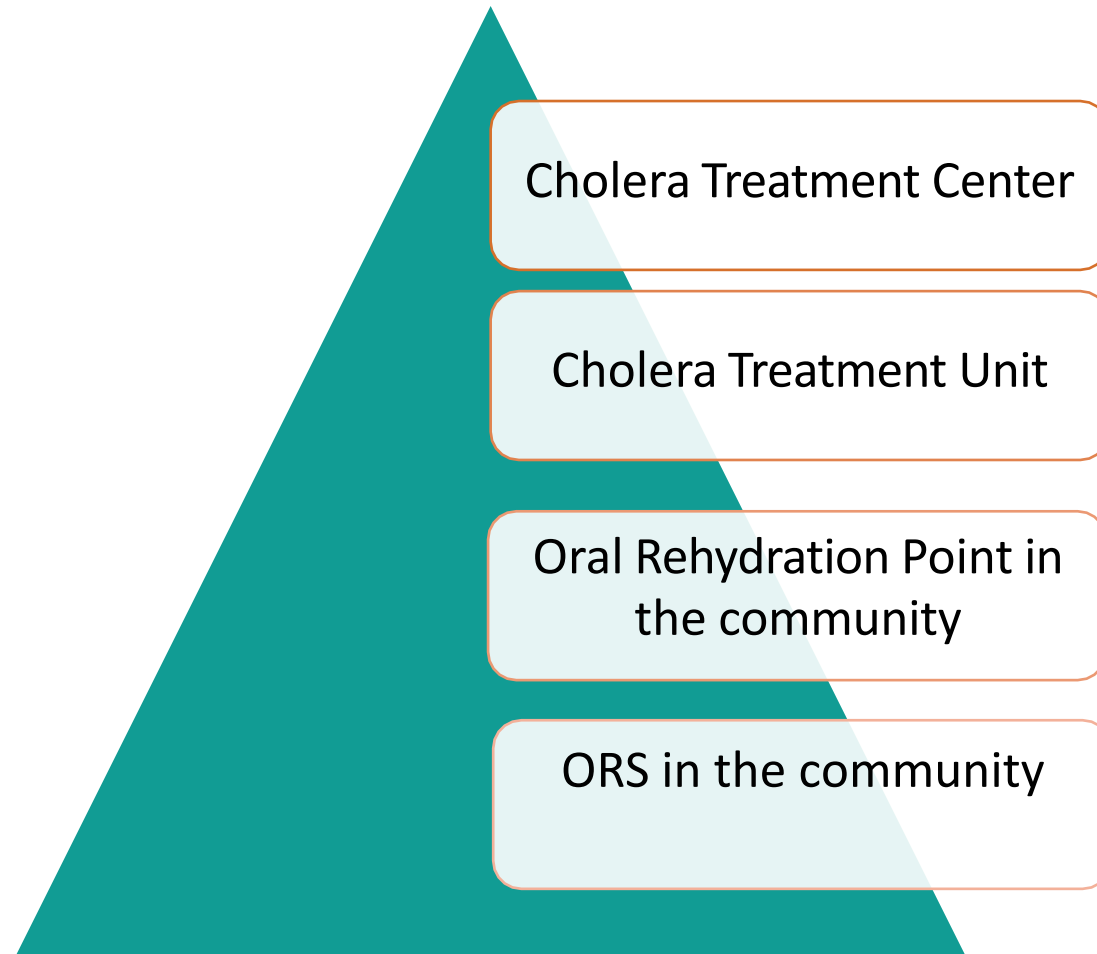

Rapidly evolving disease

Location of Cholera deaths

Based on a GTFCC Scoping Review

Levels of treatment for cholera

EXAMPLE OF TREATMENT NETWORK

