

WHO highlights

22nd INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON AIDS AND STIs IN AFRICA – ICASA 2023

4 – 9 December 2023
Harare, Zimbabwe

World Health
Organization

HEALTH
FOR ALL

MONDAY, 4 DECEMBER

Realizing the potential of HIV and STI service integration: expert consensus building workshop

1:00 PM – 5:00 PM

Access flyer

TUESDAY, 5 DECEMBER

Improving outcomes from TB and HIV through integration of prevention treatment and care for NCD co-morbidities: Diabetes CVD, cervical cancer screening and treatment and mental health.

12:05 PM – 12:50 PM

Online programme

Why do we need a renewed focus on S&D in the health sector

2:05 PM – 2:50 PM

Online programme

THURSDAY, 7 DECEMBER

Accelerating viral hepatitis elimination by 2030: unlocking the power of case detection, testing, and diagnostics

12:05 PM – 12:50 PM

Online programme

Are people living with HIV at increased risk of infections with resistant organisms?

1:05 PM – 1:50 PM

Online programme

Management of Advanced HIV disease and opportunistic infections

2:05 PM – 2:50 PM

Online programme

What's New from WHO guidelines on HIV, Viral Hepatitis and STIs

2:05 PM – 2:50 PM

Online programme

Self-testing revolution: eight years of STAR self-testing – Lessons learned and the road ahead

3:05 PM – 3:50 PM

Online programme

WEDNESDAY, 6 DECEMBER

Lifting Our Voices: Human Rights, Community Engagement And Gender Equality On The Path To WHO Validation For EMTCT

8:45 AM – 9:30 AM

Online programme

Can vaccines control STIs? A public health perspective

10:45 AM – 11:30 AM

Online programme

It's all about choices PrEP and PEP

12:05 PM – 12:50 PM

Online programme

Where are we on TB, what can be done to accelerate the TB responses?

2:05 PM – 2:50 PM

Online programme

A call for data use for evidence-based decision making to optimize differentiated service delivery implementation

3:05 PM – 3:50 PM

Online programme

FRIDAY, 8 DECEMBER

Making PrEP delivery work for people: community-based innovations

8:45 AM – 9:30 AM

Online programme

Men and HIV: Breaking Barriers, Empowering Change!

12:05 PM – 12:50 PM

Online programme

Introducing the new WHO framework for implementing integrated programmes and services for triple elimination of mother-to-child transmission of HIV, syphilis and hepatitis B virus

3:05 PM – 3:50 PM

Online programme

Innovation in epidemics predictions for better preparedness for emerging and reemerging diseases in Africa

3:05 PM – 3:50 PM

Online programme

World Health Organization

Global HIV, Hepatitis and STIs Programmes

20, avenue Appia

1211 Geneva 27

Switzerland

World Health Organization