

IFPMA pipeline update - Product Development for Vaccines Advisory Committee (PDVAC)

Paula Barbosa

Associate Director Vaccines Policy, IFPMA

9 December 2024

Background

Information based on publicly available data.

Companies in scope: AstraZeneca, Gilead, GSK, Johnson & Johnson, Merck & Co, Moderna, Novavax, Pfizer, Sanofi (includes partnerships with non-IFPMA members and between IFPMA members)

Disease/pathogen groupings used:

Respiratory	STI	Gastrointestinal	Parasitic	Bacterial	Viral
RSV	Chlamydia	ETEC	Malaria	Salmonella enterica Typhoid/paratyphoid	HSV
Influenza (next gen vaccines)	Syphilis	Shigella	Leishmania	Nontyphoidal salmonella disease	HPV
	HIV-1	Norovirus		Klebsiella pneumoniae	Cytomegalovirus
	Gonococcal vaccines (incl. MenB)	Rotavirus		Strep A/B	Hepatitis C virus tuberculosis
				Staphylococcus aureus
				ExPEC

PDVAC agenda pathogens + global list of priority endemic pathogens for vaccine development

IFPMA members are developing 64 influenza and RSV candidates, 13 of which are combination vaccines

Influenza/RSV candidates in clinical trials by IFPMA member companies

Standalone and combo influenza and RSV candidate pipeline for vaccines and prophylactic mAbs by IFPMA member companies

There are 36 standalone influenza vaccines and 14 standalone RSV vaccines currently in clinical trials from IFPMA members

There are 13 combo vaccine in development by IFPMA members, most of which target COVID/influenza

IFPMA members have 50 candidates targeting WHO priority pathogens in clinical trials

WHO priority pathogen candidates in clinical trials by IFPMA member companies

WHO priority pathogens candidate pipeline for vaccines and prophylactic mAbs
by IFPMA member companies

Most candidates developed by IFPMA members are either in Phase I or II

The majority of candidates currently in trials are being investigated in STIs

Thank you

ifpma.org

 /company/ifpma

 @ifpma

