

THE FUTURE OF FOOD SAFETY

THE INTERNATIONAL FORUM ON FOOD SAFETY AND TRADE
GENEVA, SWITZERLAND | 23-24 APRIL 2019

SPEAKER

Tan Lee Kim

Director-General, Food Administration & Deputy Chief Executive Officer, Singapore Food Agency

Tan Lee Kim is a veterinarian by training, graduating from Murdoch University, Western Australia, in 1994, under a Public Service Commission of Singapore overseas scholarship. She received a Master's in International Animal Health, in 2000, from the University of Edinburgh under a scholarship from the Commonwealth Commission.

Over the past 20 years, Tan Lee Kim has held several positions in both operations management as well as in policy and planning in the areas of food security, food safety and animal health and welfare.

Since 1 April 2019, she took on the portfolio of Director-General (DG), Food Administration and Deputy Chief Executive Officer (DCEO) of the Singapore Food Agency. Prior to that, Tan Lee Kim was DCEO/Corporate Technology of AVA for four years, overseeing the strategies and initiatives to ensure food security for Singapore such as diversification of supply, local agriculture policies and planning, urban food production solutions, R&D, industry development and international relations at food security-related platforms.
